EMOJIS: Alarmed emojis cross the stage.

Enter family members of both houses Montague and Capulet and start fighting using KoRe 10 Innovative Thinking Tools (10 KITT) as weapons.

Mr. Montague            Hey, Capulet, I'm gonna sue you!

Mr. Capulet            Montague, I'm gonna kill your brand!

Mercutio                Tybalt, you'll see your business ruined!

Tybalt                  Mercutio, shut up, my 'friend'!

Exeunt all. Enter two NARRATORS.

Narrator 1            Two brands are fighting like two Rambos.
They have been fighting days and nights

Narrator 2            For ages, though no one remembers
Who, when and why provoked the fight.

Narrator 1            Full of empowered self-leaders,
The brands are skilled in making war.

Narrator 2            So innovative, strong and speedy
They fight indoors and outdoors.

Narrator 1            Romeo and Juliet are the only
Who strive to build a lasting peace.

Narrator 2            Though they may seem to be too lonely,
Let's see what happens... Romeo, please...

EMOJIS: Curious emojis cross the stage.

Enter ROMEO and JULIET

Romeo                All wars are ugly and unhuman.
I know, we were born to love.
I love the world, all men and women.
I want to be a white peace dove.

Juliet                Oh, Romeo, I'm so delighted!
Me too, I pray for love and peace.

Let's put the end to all that fighting –
We all deserve to live in bliss!

EMOJIS: Joyful emojis cross the stage.

Romeo and Juliet sing the INNOMPIC ANTHEM

Romeo To others “winning” means “defeating”,
To me “Win-Wins” are greater deals.
While always with myself competing,
I strive that everybody wins.

Juliet Though many preach, “It doesn’t matter.
Don’t question it, don’t cause a wake”,
I always strive to make things better –
I have a difference to make!

Romeo & Juliet We have difference to make!

EMOJIS: Inspired emojis cross the stage.

Romeo Jul, I admire your creations –
Your texts and drawings so nice!
I’m web designer. Our passions
Could be, for sure, synergized.

I hope that our joint venture
Would stop this ugly dirty war.
Startup ‘Romeo & Juliet’! This creature
Would bring peace, love and much-much more!

Juliet Oh, Romeo, what you say is brilliant!
Love and startups will save this world!
Our folks are kind, they are not villains.
We two can bring them in accord.

Two wonder notions ‘joint’ and ‘venture’
Will conquer notions ‘fight’ and ‘hate’.
Our noble ‘R&J’ adventure
Will cease the war. And this is great!

EMOJIS: Passionate emojis cross the stage.

Rome and Juliet sing the INNOMPIC ANTHEM

Romeo

Though many guys have great ideas,
Unacted on they turn to dust.
But I don't let mine disappear –
I work on them – and really fast!

Juliet

Let other guys be safer sailors
Afraid of making a mistake,
But I take risks and learn from failures –
I have a difference to make!

Romeo & Juliet

We have difference to make!

EMOJIS: Creative emojis cross the stage.

Narrator 1

They know, the road ahead is thorny
And not so easy – not at all!

Narrator 2

To simulate their startup's journey,
They play, like crazy, 🎮 INNOBALL.

Romeo

Your dad my use some robust ties
To keep you by his side for life.

Juliet

I'll hug him, whisper some sweet lies
And cut the rope – I have a knife.

What if Tybalt, my dear brother,
Assaults you some unlucky day?

Romeo

I'll get prepared for this hassle
And find a way to fly away.

What if big problems with cash flow
We face one day – or even week?

Juliet

I'm sure, we will make them go –
We are so smart, so brave, so quick!

EMOJIS: Playful emojis with 10 KITT cross the stage.

Exeunt Romeo and Juliet.

Narrator 1	It's done! Startup 'Romeo & Juliet'
	Is registered by two big hearts.
Narrator 2	They do believe that they can do it
	And have required skills and arts.
Narrator 1	Startup they launched is lean and pretty
	And cute – like any child of love.
Narrator 2	But their folks are angry critics.
	To them, it is a must-die stuff.

Enter Tybalt and Mercutio from two opposite sites

Tybalt	Peace with an enemy is dirty!
	This startup is a shame for us.
	Whatever are the founders' motives,
	I'll cause their firm to hit the dust!

Mercutio	I wish I could destroy their startup,
	But I'm the last one in this queue:
	My dad, my uncle and my grandpa
	Formed their senior killers crew.

Exeunt Tybalt and Mercutio

Enters Benvolio.

Benvolio	My gosh! These guys are so revengeful!
	Oh, Romeo, as your friend in need,
	I'll rush to warn you: you're in danger,
	Your startup's bound to be killed!

EMOJIS: Scared emojis cross the stage.

Exeunt Benvolio

Enter all Montagues and Capulets with ropes, knives and hammers.

Mrs. Montague Our ropes are strong.
Mrs. Capulet Our knives are sharpened.
Mr. Montague Our hammers can crash any stones.
Mr. Capulet Nothing can save this ugly startup –
All together You'll see us dancing on its bones!

Exeunt all

Narrator 1 Meanwhile startup 'Romeo & Juliet'
Inspired by its noble cause
Narrator 2 Is growing faster than this couplet.
It's excellent and grandiose.

EMOJIS: Hard-working emojis cross the stage.

Rome and Juliet sing the INNOMPIC ANTHEM

Romeo Some people spend their life in plazas,
For others beer's the upmost goal.
But I create great things for others –
Their gratitude rewards my soul.

Juliet Let others yield in face of problems
Though their dreams could be at stake,
But I keep fighting till it's over –
I have a difference to make!

Romeo & Juliet We have difference to make!

EMOJIS: Victorious emojis cross the stage.

Exeunt Romeo and Juliet.

Narrator 1 But suddenly all kinds of problems
Extinguished their startup's flame:
Narrator 2 A ban emerged on pretty owners
And 'Romeo' in a startup's name.

Narrator 1 Their phones were found to be polluting,
Their desks were found to be too grey,
Narrator 2 Fresh fruits were found to be too fruity...
That's it. The startup's passed away.

EMOJIS: Grieving emojis cross the stage.

Enter Romeo and Juliet

Juliet                    Romeo, I loved our startup's mission,
But our firm was born to die.
And now, my dear, with your permission,
I'm also going to expire.

Romeo                    Juliet, I read an old prediction
By some wise person named Shakespeare.
And now, I see it's not a fiction –
We both are going to expire!

Romeo & Juliet            For never was a story of more sorrow
Than this of our today without tomorrow!

EMOJIS: Crying emojis cross the stage.

Exeunt Romeo and Juliet.

Narrator 1                Juliet got ill. She scares her mother
As her health goes from bad to worse.

Narrator 2                Romeo seems to be hopeless either:
He's coughing, has a runny nose.

Narrator 1                Alarmed, the families stopped fighting –
They realized: they'd went too far.

Enter all Montagues and Capulets

Mrs. Capulet              We are not dogs! Can't we stop biting?
Let us remember who we are!

Mrs. Montague            Our kids are ill! They were knocked out
By us – by you, by him, by me!

Mrs. Capulet              Let us brainstorm some good way out,
For instance, over a cup of tea?

Mrs. Montague            Or, if you wish, a cup of coffee –
I have a piece of a cheesecake.

Mr. Capulet Great! I am a coffee-drinking profi.
What would you say, seignior Montague?

Mr. Montague I have a pipe of piece somewhere –
It is a gift from some good guy.
Tea and a pipe – great atmosphere
To say our quarrel age 'Goodbye!'

Mrs. Capulet Let us embrace! Let's kiss each other!

Mr. Montague And eat, at last, that bloody cake!

Mrs. Montague You are my sister!

Mr. Capulet You're my brother!

ALTOGETHER We have a difference to make!

EMOJIS: Joyful emojis cross the stage.*

Enter Romeo and Juliet.

Romeo Juliet, God blessed our endeavour!

The Hell was turned to Paradise.

Juliet Our startup stopped the war forever!

It was an angel in disguise.

EMOJIS: Happy emojis cross the stage half-way and stay.*

Rome and Juliet sing the INNOMPIC ANTHEM

Romeo Though everyone has inborn talents,
Most people let them die unlocked.
I always swim against this current
And every day create a lot!

Juliet Though many live without a vision,
My way in life is not to fake.
I'll bring my big dreams to fruition –
I have a difference to make!

ALTOGETHER We have difference to make!
